

I have lived in Westbury since 1976 and spent most of my working life in the railway industry. I stood for Town Council because I believe Westbury is a good place to live being in the vale of the White Horse and still relatively rural. We need to preserve the environment and at the same time offer opportunities for people to live and work in the town. A Wiltshire magistrate for 25 years, I am also active in Greenpeace, Friends of the Earth, Woodland Trust and many animal and environmental charities.
