

I was first elected in March 2002 and I am the town council's longest continuously standing councillor; other current councillors first elected before 2002 have left and then re-joined since 2002.

My original motivation was to save the Leigh Park Community Centre project from cancellation.