Report of the independent examiner to The Laverton Institute report on the accounts of The Laverton Institute for the year ended 31st March 2017, which are set out on pages 1 to 5 of the Annual Report and Statement of Accounts attached.

Respective responsibilities of trustee and independent examiner

The Charity's trustee is responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's trustee considers that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act)) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to

- Examine the accounts (under section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act)
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act); and
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

This report is made solely to the trustee of The Laverton Institute in accordance with the Charities Act 1993. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the trustee those matters I am required to it in an examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the trustee of The Laverton Institute for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

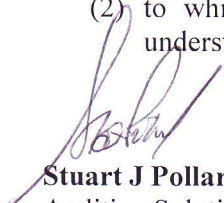

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Direction for Independent Examination issued by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking of explanations from you as trustee concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required if a full audit was undertaken, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 41 of the Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act, have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
